DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 4 – 5 and 7 – 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Van Gompel et al. (EP 0 547 497 A2).

With respect to claim 1, Van Gompel et al. (hereinafter “Van Gompel”) discloses a disposable garment having a front region, a back region, a crotch region between the front region and the back region (figure 5), the disposable garment comprising a chassis having a topsheet (34), a backsheet joined with the topsheet (20), and an absorbent core (32) interposed between the topsheet and the backsheet (figure 5), the chassis having a central panel having a waist edge and side edges, an ear panel having a waist edge and a leg opening edge, wherein said ear panel waist edge has a first lateral dimension, and said ear panel leg opening edge has a second lateral dimension, said second lateral dimension exceeding said first lateral dimension (figure 5), said chassis further having a waistband panel in the front region and the back region, wherein the ear panel extends laterally outwardly from each side edge of the central panel, and the waistband panel extends longitudinally outwardly from the waist edge of the central panel and the waist edge of the ear panel (see below)

a waist elastomeric material joined to and extending continuously along the waistband panels in the front region and the back region so as to form a continuous extensible waistband in the front region and the back region (col. 5, line 57 to col. 6, line 2), a side elastomeric material joined to the ear panel so as to form extensible ears (44), wherein the side elastomeric material is disposed over substantially all of the ear panel to provide extensibility extending from said leg opening edge to said waist edge, and wherein the side elastomeric material and the waist elastomeric material are separate elements and are disposed so as not to overlap each other (figure 5) and seams joining each ear panel to a corresponding portion in the opposite front or back region so as to form two leg openings and a waist opening such that the extensible waistbands form a continuous extensible waist feature as set forth in figures 1 – 3.

As to claim 4, Van Gompel discloses a disposable garment wherein the extensible ear is formed from a “zero strain” stretch laminate through the incorporation of US 4,940,464 in col. 9, lines 33 – 39. US 4,940,464 (Van Gompel et al.) teach the use of “zero strain” stretch laminates in col. 4, line 31 to col. 5, line 32.

With respect to claim 5, Van Gompel discloses a disposable garment wherein the waist elastomeric materials comprise two separate elements, one of which is joined to the waistband panel in the front region, the other of which is joined to the waistband panel in the back region (figure 6), wherein the two elements are connected to each other at the seams as set forth in figures 1 – 3.

As to claim 7, Van Gompel discloses a backsheet comprising an inner barrier film and a nonwoven outer cover, wherein the nonwoven outer cover is superposed outside the inner barrier film as set forth in col. 4, lines 38 – 57.

With reference to claim 8, Van Gompel discloses a garment wherein the extensible waistband comprises an extended portion of the outer cover and the waist elastomeric material as set forth in col. 8, lines 36 – 41.

Art Unit: 3761

With respect to claim 9, Van Gompel discloses that the extensible ear comprises an extended portion of the outer cover and the side elastomeric material as set forth in col. 8, lines 42 – 54.

As to claim 10, Van Gompel discloses that the waist elastomeric material is superposed inside an innermost surface of the garment as set forth in col. 8, lines 36 – 41.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed February 1, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

With respect to the applicant's amendment to claim 1 which now requires a first and second lateral dimension with the second lateral dimension exceeding the first lateral dimension, the examiner maintains the current rejection and refers to claim 5. The examiner contends that any dimension or portion thereof extending in the lateral direction along what is considered as the ear panel may be considered the ear panel waist edge and any dimension or portion thereof extending in the lateral direction along what is considered to be the ear panel leg opening edge will meet the claimed limitations. The examiner considers the second lateral dimension to be that portion of the ear panel leg opening edge that exceeds the ear panel waist edge.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL.

Art Unit: 3761

See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).
